

COPYRIGHT CLAIMS BOARD

Pro Bono Legal Services Organization Directory Information Form

The Copyright Claims Board (CCB) is an alternative forum to federal court in which parties voluntarily seek resolution of copyright disputes where damages are $30,000 or less. To facilitate this low-cost alternative to federal litigation, the CCB will maintain two directories of pro bono legal services organizations that provide legal representation before the CCB – those that are connected with law schools and those that are not. The directories will be available on the CCB website as a resource for CCB participants.

NOTE: An organization does not need to be listed in the directory to participate in proceedings before the CCB (37 CFR § 234.2(a)).

Organizations wishing to be listed in the CCB directory should provide all of the requested information below. The CCB requires this information because we would like to provide CCB participants with the information they need to make an informed decision regarding whether to seek a pro bono legal services organization's assistance.

In addition, the organization will have a duty to maintain the currency of information in the directory. If at any time, a pro bono legal services organization that was not previously working with law students would like to begin working with law students to represent clients before the CCB, that organization must notify the CCB and provide additional information.

The pro bono legal services organization must send the completed form to asktheboard@ccb.gov. Please type your answers directly into the form. Do not hand write your answers. Thank you.
